MUSSOLINI REPLIES TO ROOSEVELT

ROME, May 19 (Reuter)—Signor Mussolini has replied to President Roosevelt's peace message.

There is at present no indication of the nature of the reply but it is learned that Mussolini does not commit himself.

NO POLITICAL COMMENT

Special to H.K. Daily Press—ROME, May 19 (Havas)—The Vatican's semi-official paper, Osservatore Romano appeared today without any comment on the political situation. The paper devoted all its columns to political problems.

Foreign observers consider the Holy See is making the concession for keeping good relations with the Italian Government.

It will be recalled that several issues of the Osservatore Romano was bought out by the Fascist authorities.

Severe Air Fight Over Chengtu

CHUNGKING, May 19 (Reuter)—A severe aerial engagement took place above Chengtu yesterday evening when Japanese aircraft in three groups bombed the outskirts of the city.

Details of the air battle are not available here but damage caused by the Japanese bombing of the western and southern outskirts is reported to be slight.

A fourth group of Japanese bombers is reported to have attacked Liangshan, to the north-west of Chungking.

CHINESE OPEN FIRE

Central News states the first squadron of nine machines flew over the city at 8.30 p.m. on Saturday and dropped bombs at a point west of the city.

The second squadron broke into the city limits at 9.30 p.m. Chinese anti-aircraft guns opened fire and pursuit planes went up to engage them.

The third squadron of 18 machines failed to locate Chengtu. They were driven back by Chinese pursuit planes after flying into Szechwan province.

BELGIAN RED CROSS FUND

The Hongkong Belgian residents and the friends of Belgium have, certainly, realized the great needs and hardships Belgium is suffering as a result of the unprovoked German aggression.

A fund has been opened in Hongkong, at the Banque Belge pour l'Etranger, (E.O.) under the name of Belgian Red Cross Fund, in order to try and collect donations to be remitted to that organization, as has been done in Shanghai by the Belgian Embassy. Donations can be made either to the Banque Belge pour l'Etranger, (E.O.), 4A Des Voeux Road Central, or to the Belgian Consulate General, second floor, French Bank Building, 5 Queen's Road Central, and will be gratefully received.

B.E.F. WOUNDED BACK HOME

LONDON, May 19 (Reuter)—The British Expeditionary Force wounded arrived last night on a hospital boat and are taken to Birmingham.

LONDON, May 19 (Reuter)—Lord Tryon has been appointed First Commissioner of Works and Mr. Frederick Montague Minister of Transport.

Germany: "Who?"
Italy: "I still don't know yet."—(Karikatur, Istanbul).

$1,827 MILLION TO BE PROVIDED IMMEDIATELY FOR ARMY IN AMERICA

WASHINGTON, May 19 (Reuter)—The Senate Appropriations Sub-Committee, working with rare speed, has approved the $1,827,000,000 Army Supply Bill carrying the Army's share of the Defence Fund proposed by President Roosevelt.

The Sub-Committee provided that the money should be made available immediately instead of on July 1 as most of the appropriations specify.

The House Naval Affairs Committee has tentatively approved of legislation broadly empowering the President to ignore the wage hour regulations and similar Federal laws in order to hasten the building of warships and planes for the Navy.

The State Department announced that aeroplanes and munitions, valued at over $15,000,000 were shipped to Britain and France in April the heaviest shipping since January.

U.S. FLEET ACTIVE

HONOLULU, May 18 (Havas)—The U.S. Fleet in Hawaiian waters was busy yesterday on operations involving several isolated islands in the group.

Aeroplanes and surface craft were observed, and from the nearest observation point it seemed as though one section of the fleet was pretending to attack the other to defend, the Hawaiian Islands.

HEAVY FIGHTING IN GUISE AND LANDRECIES AREA: BRITISH TROOPS HOLD POSITIONS DESPITE STRONG PRESSURE

ISTANBUL, May 19 (Reuter)—The American Colony of about 300 with several women and children are departing for the United States on the advice of the American Embassy here.

In addition to the permanent American community here there are a considerable number of technicians at work in remote regions whose numbers cannot be ascertained at present.

Arrangements for their evacuation are understood to have been completed.

NO WARNING

LONDON, May 18 (Havas)—An official of the United States Embassy told newsmen today that "no sort of warning has been issued yet" to American citizens in Britain to leave for home.

The Embassy, acting on instructions from Washington, has merely advised them to leave.

JAPANESE TO SAIL FROM LIVERPOOL

TOKYO, May 19 (Reuter)—Seventeen wives and children of members of the Japanese Embassy staff in London are leaving Liverpool for Japan in the middle of June in view of the tense situation in Europe, according to information reaching Tokyo.

INTERNATIONAL LAWLESSNESS UNPARALLELED IN HISTORY

NEW YORK, May 19 (Reuter)—A grave-faced crowd, many in tears, were present at the dedication of the Belgian Pavilion at the World's Fair.

Governor Lehman declared: "We are faced with international lawlessness unparalleled in history. Because of the ambition and greed of a power-crazed tyrant the very existence of civilisation is threatened and the safety of every nation and individual is in jeopardy."

PARIS, May 19 (Reuter)—Prince Bernhard, husband of Princess Juliana, is now in Paris.

New Type Of Bombing Plane

BALTIMORE, May 19 (Reuter)—The Glen Martin Aeroplane Company has announced that specifications for a new type of bombing plane have been completed.

The Anglo-French Purchasing Commission have agreed to take every one turned out in the next 18 months though it is specified exceptions on delivery to the Allies would be necessary if the United States Government called for these aircraft.

Nine Hurricanes Shoot Down Ten Junkers In One Engagement

EXTENSIVE OPERATIONS ALONG AREA OF NAMUR FRONT TEAR UP ROADS AND RAILWAY COMMUNICATIONS

LONDON, May 19 (Reuter)—It is officially announced that nine Hurricane fighters shot down ten Junker dive-bombers in one engagement in France yesterday. Twenty enemy bombers were seen circling over a wood, and the leading section of Hurricanes dived to attack while the other two remained above on guard. When they saw that no escort protected the bombers, they too came down to join the fight.

EXTENSIVE OPERATIONS CONTINUED

LONDON, May 19 (Reuter)—The Air Ministry announces that in an area north-west of Namur, extensive operations were carried out on Friday night on road and rail communications used by the enemy's advancing columns.

Bridges and railway tracks were hit, aerodromes were bombed and a large supply convoy was damaged by machine-gun fire. Intense air activity continues over the fighting front.

In an engagement over France yesterday, nine Hurricanes shot down ten dive-bombers without loss. A Blenheim aircraft, while over Bergen, shot down a Messerschmitt 110, which crashed on the mountain side. A Hudson aircraft, while patrolling over the North Sea, attacked a convoy of merchant ships with bombs and one enemy vessel was damaged.

FRENCH USING 75-TON TANKS

The Germans appear to be using flame-throwing tanks as well as tanks whose armour is apparently able to withstand the usual anti-tank guns.

But the French have a reply.

They have brought up their famous 75's and are using them with great effect against the 70-ton German tanks in some cases at ranges as close as a hundred yards.

The same circles state that once the German troops have consolidated their positions along the Oise they would be in a position to attack the Maginot Line proper from the rear even if it should prove impossible to continue their advance towards Paris.

The most important part of the front is that from north Laon to the sea.

In the extreme north of this front, British, French and Belgian troops are continuing their movement of strategic retreat without undue pressure from the enemy.

Towards the end of Saturday afternoon the main battle was localised in the area of Guise and Landrecies.

VIOLENT ATTACKS

Engagements were very numerous and the Germans made very violent attacks with tanks supported by planes and artillery. Fighting continued until late in the evening and is still in progress.

In the south of Guise and north-west of Laon fighting is less violent.

The Germans made a push with armoured columns and unsupported detachments which are advancing in the direction of the Sambre and the Oise around Ribemont, south-east of Guise, and Laon, 80 miles north-east of Paris.

Paris military circles, states Havas, categorically deny assertions by the German Radio that St. Quentin, Laon and Soissons, have been taken.

A Reuter message from Paris states that it is reported from the Sedan region that the Germans have begun to organise defensive positions.

ANTWERP TAKEN

BERLIN, May 19 (Reuter)—The High Command says the German war flag is flying on the Antwerp town hall.

AIR RAID NEAR PARIS

PARIS, May 19 (Reuter)—An air raid was carried out in the Paris district last evening. Two flights of eight planes participated, and four were brought down.

WHOLE OF HOLLAND IN NAZI HANDS

BERLIN, May 19 (Reuter)—A High Command communique issued from Hitler's headquarters says:

"Now that the last resistance on the island of Walcheren has been broken the whole of Holland, with all her islands, is in German hands."

In northern Belgium our troops, after the occupation of Antwerp, are pushing the enemy, who are fighting tenaciously, further back to the west. To the west of Antwerp the Schelde has been crossed. Between Maubeuge and Kafele (?) the attack is continued.

"The Sambre and Oise have been crossed and Le Cateau and St. Quentin are in German hands."

"In the southern sector strong German units reached the region of north Laon and Aisne, near Rethel."

MAGINOT LINE

"During the engagements north-west of Montmedy, the strong fortified position No. 505 of the Maginot Line, was captured."

"So far, 110,000 prisoners of war have been counted, excluding the Dutch Army and also numerous guns."

"On the French coast a 6,000-ton cargo ship was sunk and a destroyer seriously damaged."

"The enemy lost 127 planes of which 47 were shot down, during air combat, and 13 by anti-aircraft fire the remainder being destroyed on the ground. Twenty-seven German planes are missing."

DEFENDERS OF NAMUR

OSTEND, May 19 (Reuter)—Another message from King Leopold of the Belgians to the defenders of Namur is identical with the one broadcast yesterday and transmitted by the Belgian Radio this morning.

Afterwards the announcer said that the defenders of Namur who were beating back the armed enemy's attacks were rendering invaluable service to the country's defence.

HEEP YUNN SCHOOL CEREMONY

The C. M. S. Heep Yunn School celebrated its third anniversary on Saturday in spite of the inclement weather. A large gathering of friends and relations of the pupils was present.

The ceremonies included the unveiling of the portraits of the first two headmistresses of the school in the 1880's. A prayer was said by the Rt. Rev. R. O. Hall, Bishop of Hongkong, who is also the chairman of the school council.

PHYSICAL DISPLAY

The unveiling of the two portraits, in equal positions of honour, symbolises the uniting of the two schools in 1937 to form the Heep Yunn School.

Subsequently, a new tennis court was formally declared open by Mr. Loh Chun-tong, Director of Education in Kwangtung Province. This was followed by an expert display of physical training exercises by the pupils of the school.

FOOTBALLERS BACK FROM SAIGON

The Colony Interport Soccer team returned from Saigon on Saturday morning and were received by a large gathering of relatives, friends and well-wishers.

The team was under the management of Messrs. A.C. Goldenberg and C.A. Guimang. All the players looked quite fit but they were of one accord in their disappointment of the manner in which the Interport game was refereed.

It will be recalled that Hongkong easily defeated Cambodia by five goals to four and Saigon "B" by seven goals to one. In the final Interport game against Saigon "A" they lost by 3-1.

Describing the game, one of the players said that the Saigon team played very rough football, and the Hongkong team was so frequently penalised that they were somewhat demoralised and missed several good scoring opportunities, especially in the last few minutes of play when Fung missed from an easy header and Yeung shot just over the bar.

They were well entertained by the Saigon football authorities and were high in their praise of the courteous manner in which they were treated wherever they went.

FINE START GIVEN TO BASEBALL SEASON

Magnificent Rally By Mindanao In Match Against Brewers

After leading throughout the game, U.S.S. MINDANAO staged a magnificent rally in their half of the last innings to nose out H.K. BREWERY by seven runs to six to open the 1940 baseball season in fine style.

"Red" Keplinger and Belke formed an effective battery for Mindanao. Keplinger striking out six batters to his opponent "Slim" Arculli's two.

The losers outthit the winners by nine to eight and also misused one time left, four to five. There were not many big hits, three baggers being scored by D. Leonard (H.K. B.) and Todd and Padgett for Mindanao.

The Brewers had played head-up ball after the second stanza, in which the sailors crossed the home plate three times, and blanked the latter for the rest of the game until the end of the last canto when they totted in the necessary four runs to register an unexpected, but well-deserved, victory.

FILM RECORD OF VICTORY

CHUNGKING, Ma, is (Central)

Actual scenes of the recent Honan-Hupeh battle which resulted in a sweeping Chinese victory have been taken by crack cameramen of the China Motion Picture Studio in a full length newsreel which will be shortly shown in Chungking and elsewhere.

General Li Tsung-jen, the noted military strategist who directed the Hupeh-Honan campaign, made a personal appearance and also autographed one of the titles in the picture.

Many copies of the film will be made to be sent to and shown in foreign countries.

"There are always dirty old men."—Vivian Van Damme, of the Windmill Theatre.

"When you are dealing with police officers, the best thing to do is to keep your mouth shut until you have had legal advice."—Solicitor at Chatham.

"Oh, Blast it."—B. C. C. man who went on the air by mistake last week.

A Normal School for Girls will be established under the Chinese Ministry of Education and be formally opened by the next academic term. A preparatory committee of three has been appointed by the Ministry to make the necessary preparations.

GERMANY THROWS HALF HER TANKS INTO FIGHT

FRENCH COUNTER-ATTACK CHECKS ENEMY ON MANY POINTS

General Giraud Takes Command In The Sedan Region

LONDON, May 19 (REUTERS)—THE WAR SITUATION ON THE WESTERN FRONT HAS BEEN EXPANDED ON BY OFFICIAL SPOKESMEN BOTH IN LONDON AND PARIS WHO HAVE FILLED IN THE GAPS IN THE OFFICIAL COMMUNIQUE.

In one small area alone over half the tanks in the German army were thrown into the battle; over 3,000 tanks advanced in two directions in the bulge created in the French lines.

At the northern end of the bulge, on the River Sambre, the armoured columns reached a point 10 miles from the frontier; they made little further progress after being counter-attacked by French tanks.

Twenty miles to the south enemy tanks launched a stronger attack and the battle ended on positions chosen beforehand by the French Command.

The French launched a counter-attack and the German advance has slackened. However, no false hopes are entertained in official quarters.

The Germans have tried to break through at other points and so widen the salient, but these attacks have failed.

SEVERE FIGHTING

At no point has the Maginot Line been attacked.

Severe fighting is going on between Malmedy and Sedan, with the Germans apparently trying to get behind the end of the Maginot Line; all attacks were repulsed, at Malmedy easily, and at Sedan not so easily.

In Belgium, at the north end of the Allied line, the British and French have withdrawn.

GENERAL GIRAUD TAKES OVER COMMAND

The British troops are described as being "indignant at having to withdraw, as they always are when a situation is ordered the reasons for which they cannot see."

General Giraud has taken over the command of the French troops in the Sedan area; the appointment has put fresh heart into ordinary people in France.

Wonderful liaison is being maintained between the French and British forces, as a result of the close study made by the two armies of each other's methods for years past. The result has been that misunderstandings have been absent, which was not the case in the Great War.

FIFTH COLUMN ACTIVITIES

Meanwhile the Germans are making new use of the Fifth Column, and are trying by this means to shake morale behind the front.

Nazi agents have come across the frontier with civilian refugees; they are spreading wild rumours in the hope of causing confusion and mistrust among troops and people.

SUCCESSFUL OPERATIONS

LONDON, May 19 (BWS)—An official communique issued by British G.H.Q. early yesterday morning says: "Successful operations were carried out by the B.E.F. yesterday. Several enemy aircraft were brought down by anti-aircraft and small arms fire in addition to the successes of the R.A.F. The morale of the troops is very high."

"DYLE LINE" ABANDONED

LONDON, May 19 (Reuters)—Allied troops in Belgium have withdrawn from the "Dyle Line," which has been abandoned, and have taken up positions which correspond better to the situation further south.

LIVELY BATTLE

LONDON, May 19 (Reuters)—A French war communique says that in France a lively battle continues in the regions already indicated in yesterday night's communique.

In Belgium, taking into account the general situation, the Allied troops carried out a movement of withdrawal and took up positions west of Brussels.

During the night our aviation carried out violent bombing attacks on enemy columns, on roads and on enemy communication points.

"CURTAINING" THE GERMANS

PARIS, May 19 (Reuters)—A French spokesman says that French troops are getting on with the job of curtaining the Germans in the salient. They are arriving rapidly and taking up their positions.

No details of the fighting are yet available, but it is certain that it has been heavy and lively. Besides the thrust in the salient, the Germans made another attack south of Sedan, in an attempt to force another breakthrough and widen the salient.

NEWEST TANKS

The Germans are apparently using from two to three armoured divisions, made up of their newest and heaviest tanks, which are being used on an actual battle-front for the first time. They are well supported by bombing planes and infantry.

The tactics are for bombers to start things going by dive-bombing in great numbers on the point selected for the advance. The tank "push" follows.

NOT MANY CASUALTIES

If it succeeds, the infantry try to come up, supported by parachute troops dropped close behind the defenders.

If the tank "push" fails, the tanks return and the heavy bombers have another try at dive-bombing.

From all reports, the French casualties from the bombing are not large, but the tactics have considerable morale effect. The mere concussion of the bombs can stun the troops, something long enough to enable the tanks to advance to the attack.

Hence, the importance of air support cannot be exaggerated.

The French military spokesman said that the Allied planes are continuously bombing columns of troops, bridges and lines of communication.

Five Bombs Near Them But They Were Unscathed

LONDON, May 19 (Reuters)—A graphic description of the bombing of a small Belgian frontier town was given on Friday by Mr. Edward Ward, (formerly with Reuters in the Far East), who said it was nothing like anything he had seen in Finland.

SUPPORT FOR ROOSEVELT'S ARMAMENT PLANS

WASHINGTON, May 19 (Reuters)—Pledges of support for President Roosevelt's large armament plans have been made by three leading Republicans, ex-President Hoover, Mr. Alf Landon and Col. Frank Knox.

Mr. Landon and Col. Knox were the Republican nominees for the presidency and vice-presidency last election.

Their endorsement of President Roosevelt's programme is remarkable as forming in effect a defence coalition unparalleled in the United States since the Great War.

NON-MILITARY PLACES NOT BOMBED

LONDON, May 19 (Reuters)—A German broadcast admits heavy Allied air raids on Germany, and says that in the first three days of the invasion of the Low Countries, 71 Allied air raids were made over German territory. The broadcast alleges that 51 of these were on non-military objectives.

This is vigorously denied in London, where a Foreign Office statement yesterday afternoon declared: "His Majesty's Government has made it clear that it is no part of their policy to bomb non-military objectives, no matter what the policy of the German Government. In spite of wanton German attacks on civilians, His Majesty's Government has steadfastly adhered to this policy. The statement that the R.A.F. has deliberately bombed civilians is untrue and was obviously made with the object of paving the way for the use against this country of the inhuman methods already taken against other countries."

He arrived at the town on the Belgio-French frontier on Thursday. It was packed with refugees, at least 20,000 of them, and when he saw them he thought to himself how horrible it would be were the town bombed.

After lunch, he went into the main square with some other war correspondents.

AIR RAID ALARM

The air-raid alarm sounded and they could see puffs of anti-aircraft fire. Then came the "all clear" but no sooner had it stopped than they heard more anti-aircraft fire and this time they also saw the German bombers.

There was no time to take shelter. They rushed towards a tall clock-tower and flung themselves onto the ground next to the wall.

FIVE BOMBS DROPPED

For what seemed like an eternity, there was a raging inferno around them, the lighter crack of anti-aircraft fire mingling with the heavier explosions of the bombs.

At least five bombs dropped within 100 yards of them, some of the heavier ones flinging them against the wall of the tower. They expected to get hit at any moment. They could see wreckage shoot high into the air as the bombs hit buildings around them. They fortunately came through unscathed.

adhered to this policy. The statement that the R.A.F. has deliberately bombed civilians is untrue and was obviously made with the object of paving the way for the use against this country of the inhuman methods already taken against other countries."

SHEER PROPAGANDA: NAZI WHITE BOOK

WHEN FOREIGN MINISTER JOSEF BECK AND OTHER LEADERS OF A BEATEN POLAND FLED FROM WARSAW LAST SEPTEMBER, they left in a hurry. According to the German Foreign Office, they left behind them some very interesting documents.

The Germans published these documents a day after Mr. Sumner Welles, just back from Europe, made his undivulged report to the President.

Published in a White Book, entitled "Polish Documents Bearing on Events That Led Up to the War," they purported to be memoranda from Polish diplomats (Count Jerzy Potocki, Ambassador to the U.S., Jules Lukasiewicz, Ambassador to France, Count Edward Raczyński, Ambassador in London, Trade Councillor Jan Wszelaki) to their chief, Col. Beck. They reported conversations held with U. S. Ambassador to France William Bullitt, U. S. Ambassador to the Court of St. James's Joseph Kennedy. Of the conversations the documents reported:

"That Mr. Bullitt nursed a 'strong hatred about Germany and Chancellor Hitler,' that Mr. Bullitt believed the U. S., France and England 'must heavily arm in order to be able to oppose German power,' that the U. S. would 'undoubtedly' participate in a war to force the capitulation of Germany 'but only after England and France had first stirred themselves', and was 'in November 1938' already 'in a psychosis similar to that existing before America's declaration of war on Germany in 1917'."

That President Roosevelt's foreign policy would be to: 1) denounce the totalitarian States, 2) accelerate war preparations in the U. S., 3) tolerate no compromise with the totalitarian States on the part of Britain and France, 4) advance moral assurance that the U. S. would in the event of war "participate actively on the side of France and Britain."

TWO-FOLD OBJECT

That President Roosevelt "was the first who gave expression to this hatred of Fascism," with a twofold object "First, he wanted to divert the attention of the American people from difficult and involved inner political problems... Second, by the creation of war opinion and through rumors about the danger threatening Europe, he wanted to get the American people to accept an enormous armament programme."

That "the President certainly said he would send airplanes to France since the French Army is the first line of defence for the U. S."

That Ambassador Kennedy would "insist on the necessity of (Great Britain) aiding Poland immediately with cash."

That Mr. Kennedy had told Mr. Wszelaki: "You have no idea to what extent my oldest boy, who was in Poland a short time ago, has the President's ear. I might say that the President believes him more than me."

SHEER PROPAGANDA

At the White House, the White Book was described as sheer propaganda, to be taken not with one or two, but with three grains of salt. "With even more salt," echoed Mr. Bullitt, before leaving by Clipper for France.

Said Count Potocki in Washington: "I have never had any conversations with Ambassador Bullitt on America's participation in the war." Said Secretary of State Hull: "I may say most emphatically that neither I nor any of my associates in the Department of State have even heard of any such conversations as those alleged, nor do we give them the slightest credence." From Harvard Joseph P. Kennedy Jr. denied that he had Mr. Roosevelt's ear. Said he: "A lot of bunk."

In Berlin, some of the foreign correspondents who were shown the documents, written on scratch paper, reported that they looked genuine, were covered with marginal notes, apparently by Polish officials.

LACK OF RETICENCE

Neither the President nor Secretary Hull said in so many words that they were a fraud. They echoed familiar and frequent public utterances of Francophile Bill Bullitt. On the one point, the declaration that the U. S. would eventually go to war, they did not indicate that Mr. Bullitt had said, if anything, more than most U. S. citizens were saying a few months ago.

If the documents proved anything it was that U. S. diplomats sometimes talk with an unprofessional lack of reticence. But the German Foreign Office tried to draw the nonsensical conclusion that U. S. officials had conspired to foment the war. Evidently indulging in false hope that the publication would set up dissension in the U. S., it hinted at the publication of more documents showing the ugly wiles of U. S. diplomats.

SOUTH AFRICA "CLEANS UP"

JOHANNESBURG, May 19 (Reuters)—Immediate and active measures for dealing with "Fifth Column" activities as well as subversive movements and inimical propaganda are announced by Mr. Colin Steyn, Minister of Justice.

Mr. Steyn added that General Smuts, the Premier, was personally attending to the matter. This action and the rush of recruits are the first results of the German invasion of Holland and the increasing tension in the Mediterranean.

General Smuts' supporters claim a distinct swing towards the Prime Minister in African speaking parts of the country.

Two of General Hertzog's most influential followers in the Orange Free State announced they now support General Smuts.

FIFTH COLUMNISTS SEED OUT

PARIS, May 19 (Reuters)—A steady stream of refugees from Belgium and Northern France is still passing through the capital but the Government has now warned civilians not to leave towns and urban areas until instructed.

The order is regarded with widespread approval, the object being to keep the roads free for military traffic.

Observers claim there is little danger from "Fifth Column" activities owing to the continuous action against suspicious foreigners since the war began, coupled with the recent internment of many men of German origin. Nevertheless precautions are being taken against surprises.

READY AGAINST QUISLINGS

BERNE, May 19 (Reuters)—Switzerland is increasing her precautions against the Fifth Column. The Department of Justice and the police have been given authority to expel undesirable aliens. In Basle, where the French and German frontiers meet, the local authorities have been given full powers to act in an emergency without consulting the Federal Council.

KING'S TOUR OF INSPECTION

LONDON, May 19 (Reuters)—The King, wearing R. A. F. uniform, on Friday inspected the Bomber Command in England.

His Majesty studied maps and reports of the Command's recent operations on the western front, and warmly praised their feats.

The work of the R. A. F. is threefold.

First, they attack enemy supply communications.

Secondly, they strike blows behind the enemy lines.

Third, they protect our troops in the line and down raiders in Belgium and France.

GIRL GUIDES GIFT FUND

Through the generosity of the owners, directors and management of the King's and Majestic Theatres, two cinema performances for children will be given on Empire Day, May 24, at 11 o'clock. "Wee Willie Winkie" will be shown at the King's Theatre and "The Prince and the Pauper" at the Majestic Theatre. The total proceeds will be devoted to the Girl Guide Fund. It is hoped that parents and children will support the scheme, fill the theatres and help the Hongkong Guides' contribution.

TSAOYANG RECAPTURED BY THE CHINESE

More Than 20,000 Japanese Surrounded Last Week

CHUNGKING, May 18 (Central)—The Chinese complete recapture of Tsaoyang, 40 miles east of Sinyang, where more than 20,000 Japanese have been surrounded in the past week, is confirmed in an urgent despatch received here from Fancheng.

The message described the fighting there prior to the Chinese recapture as exceptionally severe and revealed that hand-to-hand combats raged from morning till evening.

The Chinese goal of crushing the main Japanese force in central China is said to have been reached.

ARMY SEIZED

Besides Tsaoyang, the Chinese also recaptured Chifangiang, Huho, and Yangshihang, near the Honan border northwest of Tsaoyang, on May 18. More than 1,000 Japanese were killed, and a quantity of arms and ammunition was seized.

In central Hupeh, the Chinese have pushed south of Kingshan, 35 miles east of Chungking, in their southward drive. In an attack on the Japanese at Yung-shingchen, south of Kingshan, they routed the enemy, captured more than 300 rifles and destroyed two Japanese tanks.

Following their recovery of Luilin and Kikungshan on the Peiping-Hankow Railway in south Honan, the Chinese are now pushing towards Wushengkwang, gateway into Honan 27 and half miles south of Sinyang. Serious clashes have already taken place between the advance guards of the two opposing forces.

CHINESE BOMBED

In support of the Japanese ground defenders, enemy planes have bombed and strafed the advancing Chinese. One of the machines is reported to have been brought down by one Chinese in flames. All its crew were killed.

Fighting in south Hupeh is still centred around Tashaping, between Tsunkyang and Tungcheng. A three-day battle raged on May 13-15 near Hsishan in the western

Chinese Lady Injured In Bombing

CHUNGKING, May 19 (Reuters)—News has just been received here that Mr. Wang Ching-chi, Chinese Minister to Poland, had a narrow escape recently when German aircraft bombed a town near the French border where he stopped overnight on his way to Paris.

His wife and daughter were both slightly injured when a bomb hit the hotel in which they were staying.

SERVANTS KILLED

Mr. Wang's chauffeur and maid-servant are believed to have been killed as the bomb hit the section of the hotel where the servants stayed, and there was no trace of the servants after the bombing.

It is also learned that Mr. Chien Tai, Chinese Ambassador to Belgium, left Brussels for Ostend with other members of the Diplomatic Corps.

It is understood the Chinese government has appropriated funds for the construction of dug-outs in the Chinese Embassies in Paris, London and Brussels.

EXCHANGE QUOTATIONS CABLED PRIVATELY

How Macao Speculators Were Given Advance Rates

Pleading guilty to all the charges preferred against them in connection with various offences against the Telecommunication Ordinance and the Defence Regulations Ordinance, three Chinese wireless operators, Leung Tsz-hong, 33, Lung Chiu-hong, 29, and Cheung Saw-wai, 35, were fined $850, $400 and $200 respectively by Mr. E. Himsforth at Kowloon Court on Saturday.

The first and second defendant were accused of having, between April 11 and April 23, received by telephone at the Water Police Station certain code messages, these being quotations for Chinese national currency on the Hongkong Exchange, and of having transmitted these by wireless to third defendant on board the s.s. Sai On.

The messages were directed to certain speculators in Macao who through this method were able to get news of the exchange quotations some 20 minutes to half an hour earlier than through normal routes.

Mr. J. Reynolds, Crown Counsel, in outlining the facts of the case, said that on April 11, acting on information received, all calls to Government Extension 573 and all outgoing wireless messages to Tai Wo were intercepted at the Chief Detective Inspector's Office at Yau-mat Police Station.

MESSAGES INTERCEPTED
Mr. D. W. Waterton, Senior Inspector of Wireless Telegraphs, and Mr. Wong Shi-lan, of the same Department, had, several messages intercepted between April 11 and April 23. The messages were in code and later decoded with the assistance of first defendant himself. All the messages dealt with quotations for Chinese national currency.

Second defendant was arrested on information given by the first defendant, both men being employees of the Government. On first defendant's person, as well as in his desk, were found various lottery tickets and documents, and code instructions were found also on third defendant when he was arrested by Sgt. Scott.

The wireless office at Tai Wo did not generally receive messages unless instructed to take these by Water Police Station, and so very few, if any, messages directed to the Tai Wo Station would be received there.

First defendant was receiving a monthly payment from the speculators of $100 for his services, and he was paying $35 a month to second defendant for his assistance.

SPECULATORS TIMID
Pleading in mitigation for first defendant, the Hon. Mr. Leo D'Almada e Castro, Jr., said that by the means first defendant had employed, he was able to get messages to Macao some 20 minutes in advance of the normal route. The speculators in Macao, however, appeared to have been rather timid, and little profit had accrued. Defendant's share being about $40 a month.

On every message defendant had sent he had defrauded the Government of 50 cents which was the normal fee for messages of this nature to Macao.

His client, the Hon. Mr. D'Almada said, was paid $144 a month salary and had risen to his present position in 12 years, being first employed by Government in 1928 at a salary of $75 a month.

DISASTROUS CONSEQUENCES
He had been obliged to bear heavy expenses as the result of illness of one of his children some months ago, the child having subsequently died, and was heavily in debt. The burden of this debt was a constant worry to him, and he had been easily tempted at the prospect of money so easily obtained.

The consequences of his action were already disastrous. He had lost his job, and prospects of employment either in the Colony or in China were slight. He would always have to suffer as the result of his having fallen into this temptation.

He was the son of a respectable father who had rendered a service to the European community in the general strike of 1925, and justice demanded counsel concluded, that he would not be ruined.

NO HARM ASSURANCE
Mr. G. E. Ford, pleading in mitigation for second defendant, said that his client had joined the Government Service two-and-a-half years ago and had been transferred to the Water Police Station about half a year ago. He had been approached by first defendant with a suggestion for earning extra money and was, in fact, subordinate to first defendant. He had been told by first defendant that no harm was being done.

Extenuating circumstances had prompted him to accept first defendant's suggestion. He was earning $90 a month and had to support an aged mother, a wife and three children on this income.

SERIOUS VIEW

Mr. Alfred Y. Hon, pleading for third defendant, said that "his client had only come into the 'plot' in March or towards the end of February. He could also plead that extenuating circumstances led him into the plot as he was earning only $60 a month and was a married man with five children."

Mr. Reynolds, addressing the court, said that the Postmaster General wished a serious view to be taken of the case as defendants were Government servants in positions where absolute integrity was essential. Methods used by the defendants were such as could have lent themselves to a more serious form of crime.

It appeared that first defendant had induced the other two men to conspiracy, and the case called for a maximum fine, if not a prison sentence.

TRUST ABUSED

In imposing fines on the three defendants, Mr. Himsforth said that the offence they had committed was one of a very serious nature. In the case of first and second defendants, while placed in a position of trust, they had used all resources at their disposal to violate this trust, and to add to the gravity of the offence had broken the Emergency Regulations.

He was satisfied, Mr. Himsforth continued, that the messages had been sent for personal and private gain and that the defence of the Colony or of the British Empire had not been endangered.

HEAVY FINES

He would not impose the maximum fines, but the fines would have to be severe so that they would act as a deterrent to others who would be tempted to violate the trust, their positions required of them.

Mr. Himsforth then imposed fines of $850, $400 and $200 on first, second and third defendant respectively. Second defendant, who was not on bail, was committed to the remand prison and will have to serve two months' hard labour in default should he not be able to pay the fine imposed.

Criminal Sessions

Pleading guilty at the Criminal Sessions on Saturday, before the Chief Justice, Sir Atholl MacGregor, to having committed a robbery at Tai-po, with others not in custody on January 2, Li Koon-lin was sentenced to two-and-a-half years' hard labour.

Accused, it was stated, took part in robbing Woo Sun $34 Hongkong currency and $10 Chinese currency. Yan Hoi of $22 Hongkong currency and clothing and Chung Ming of five cents, a torch and a whistle.

Li said he had been forced into the business by a man whom he knew as a travelling trader and could not run away. When confronted with his record, he admitted three previous convictions.

Hung Kau, a young Chinese who appeared on three charges, with returning from banishment, robbery and unlawful possession of arms, also pleaded guilty and was sentenced to two years' hard labour on each count, the second and third terms to run consecutively.

Four hand grenades and a long knife were produced in court to substantiate the arms charge.

Lau Kau, who admitted having in his possession four Mauser pistols, one revolver, one automatic pistol and 140 rounds of ammunition at On Long, in the New Territories, was sentenced to 15 months' hard labour.

Four returned banished were also sentenced. Chan Wah and

A Desperate Gamble

GENERAL SMUTS, the Premier of South Africa, correctly summarised the present military situation in the west when he declared that an aggressor always had the advantage at the beginning. Reports of the fighting over the week-end indicate that though the Nazi onslaught through Belgium has been held up in several places, the initial advantage which the German war machine secured still appears to be held and the situation must therefore, be considered critical. The Allied arms are, however, are meeting the situation with calm determination and are slowly but steadily strengthening their resistance to blunt the fierce thrusts launched by the Nazis. The situation as it stands now appears to present political observers with an opportunity for analysing the reasons which must have induced Herr Hitler to stake the whole Nazi might on this westward drive through the Low Countries. Mr. Wickham Steed, for instance, the well-known commentator on world affairs, described the German Fuehrer's move as a desperate gamble to bring about a quick termination of the war with a victory for Germany. There is no doubt, however, that any analysis of the position must be based largely on guess-work, but there are certain undeniable factors which must be taken into account in arriving at possible conclusions on the causes which led the Nazis to break the stalemate which has featured the war in the west since the outbreak of hostilities.

THE MOST WIDELY expressed view, both at home and abroad, is that Herr Hitler was determined to bring the base of his operations closer to the shores of England, whose supremacy of the seas has threatened to completely dislocate his former policy of watching and waiting. The fact appears to be that the effect of the Allied blockade, the full force of which has been strengthened by the command of the seas which the Allied Navies have been able to maintain, is beginning to make itself felt more seriously within Germany than is probably realised. With nearly ninety per cent of his merchant fleet rendered useless for purposes of bringing into Germany the

MME. KUNG ENTERTAINS RELIEF WORKERS

A number of Hongkong Chinese women relief workers, actively associated with the promotion of the Society of Friends of the Wounded Soldiers, were entertained to tea by Madame H. H. Kung, head of the movement, at her residence in Sassoon Road yesterday afternoon.

Representatives of various organisations reported on the progress of the membership campaign, which was launched two months ago and which will be brought to a close at the end of June.

The financial result of the campaign to date has not been made known, but it is understood that the reports rendered to Madame Kung yesterday were very encouraging.

Madame Kung appealed to those present to redouble their efforts on behalf of the wounded soldiers.

Amongst those present at the meeting were Madame Sun Yatsen, who recently returned from Chungking, and Madame Sun Fo. Other guests included Mme. Wu Te-chen; Mme. C. C. Wu, Miss Hu Mu-lan, Mrs. Ho Pak-ping, Mrs. Violet Chan and Miss Shin Tak-hing.

essentials which the country needs so much for its existence and his other avenues of trade in a state of uncertainty, discontent within the Reich over the country's economic position must be assuming grave proportions.

HERR HITLER, blind as he may be to the trend of opinion outside the confines of his own troubled domain, would not be allowed to remain in ignorance of the feelings of his suffering people. The German people are not content to sit down and allow themselves to be starved out with the daily tightening of the Allied blockade. They demanded that something be done and to appease them Herr Hitler launched his campaign against Denmark and Norway. Flushed with his success in that venture, Herr Hitler sought to impress the Germans with even a greater example of his might and, at the same time, to bring relief from the economic encirclement of the Reich—and the attack on Holland and Belgium was launched with all the fury of a desperate animal brought to bay. The German propaganda machine, meanwhile played up the moves in the most exultant tones—the Nazi blitzkrieg had started and everything would crumble before the advance of the Nazi war machine! Another reason behind the decision was to impress the "doubting Thomases" of Europe—Signor Mussolini—with the invincibility of German might and so inveigle him into the European conflagration and extend the war zone in the hope of extending the Allied defence and attack lines.

AS FAR AS Italy is concerned, the Nazi fanatic seems to have succeeded in his object and everything points to Italian participation in the war as an Ally of the Germans. Insofar as his other hopes of reducing the Allied resistance and undermining the morale of their people by his methods of frightfulness are concerned, Herr Hitler has yet to learn that they are as far removed from accomplishment as ever. His desperate gamble this time may well prove to be his undoing and no one is perhaps more aware of what failure must bring than the Nazi Fuehrer himself. He has certainly presented the Allies with a formidable task and there are no illusions either in Britain, France or in Belgium of the vast strength of his present onslaught. His methods, however, have resulted in a calmer and more determined resolve to attain the goal for which the Allies have taken up arms, and nothing will now stand in their way, however long it may take to accomplish it.

Allied Movements On The Sambre Sector Continues

PARIS, May 19 (Reuter)—The general impression created by today's news from the west is described by a French military spokesman as favourable on the whole.

North of Sambre the Allies' great strategic movement continues without hindrance or enemy pressure. Between Sambre and Aisne, fierce fighting took place round Avesnes but the German attacks were not so great in violence as yesterday.

It is thought the Germans may be faced with supply difficulties, owing to energetic action taken by the Allies.

If Hitler Is Stopped Now

IT WILL BE FOR ALL TIME

NEW YORK, May 19 (Reuter)

According to the "New York Post," very high quarters in Washington have received by telephone uncensored information from equally high quarters in Paris as follows:

"The French have definitely established that 11 of Germany's 12 mechanised divisions are engaged and are suffering losses."

"A total of 1,500 German planes have been destroyed."

"So much of German strength is being expended that the Nazis will never be able to organise another assault on such a large scale. Therefore, though the situation is of utmost gravity, the French Government is certain that if Hitler is stopped now, he will be stopped for ever."

JAPANESE SEIZE AMERICAN PUBLICATIONS

CHUNGKING, May 18 (Central)

American publications sent by post yesterday were seized by the Japanese military who branded them as anti-Japanese propaganda, says a Shanghai dispatch.

One of Japanese army officer tore up a copy of the Evening Post and Mercury and warned the staff of the Post Office that they would be shot if they dared to accept such a publication for mail next time.

Thousands of copies of two American owned Chinese dailies were forcibly taken away.

The Japanese action is considered by American publishers as a contravention of the Universal Postal Convention. If the Japanese continue to seize American publications one step they will very likely take is to appeal to the American authorities concerned to ban Japanese propaganda literature, sent to the United States, as a reprisal.

Germany Stakes Her All On Red: If Black Turns Up It Will Be Her Ruin

LONDON, May 19 (Reuter)—We await each scrap of news with deep concern, but also deep confidence, declared Mr. Duff Cooper, Minister of Information, in a broadcast.

One reason for confidence is that the enemy is laying for far higher stakes than we are. We may win or lose this battle, but if we lose it we shall not have lost the war. If Germany loses it she will lose the war as well. That is why she has thrown into the battle the whole of the vast accumulated force she has been building up, both before and since the coming of the Nazis.

Like a mad roulette gambler, she staked all her vast resources upon the red. If the black turns up, it will be a black day for her. This battle is not very different from most of the battles of the last war, beginning with a tremendous push which gradually slows down, ending in exhaustion for the attackers, advantage for the defenders.

NOT MAGINOT LINE

The Germans have broken through on a broad front, not on the Maginot Line, but only on the recent continuation of it which had never been considered impregnable. Perhaps the most remarkable feature of the battle so far has been the gallantry and efficiency of the Royal Air Force.

Mr. Duff Cooper read a message from M. Frossard, in Paris, expressing the "approbation of every Frenchman of the heroism of the R.A.F., which will be a decisive factor in saving France."

LIBERTY OF MANKIND

There are astonishing authentic stories of what our young pilots have been accomplishing in the past few days and nights.

What is the explanation for their superiority in the operations, asked Mr. Duff Cooper.

The Germans are skillful pilots and brave men. Maybe our machines are better than theirs, but that is not the whole explanation. In Oliver Cromwell's words, the "best soldier is the soldier who knows what he is fighting for, and loves what he knows." Our boys are fighting for the liberty of mankind.

People's Education In Kwangtung

The Kwangtung Provincial Department of Education has formulated a five-year plan for the promotion of people's education, says Central News.

SUCCESSFUL MIDDLESEX FUNCTION

ALBUHERA BALL IN ROSE ROOM

The 1st Battalion, The Middlesex Regiment, held their Albuhera Ball in the Rose Room of the Peninsula Hotel on Saturday night and the function proved highly successful being attended by over 350 persons who danced, to the strains of Art Carneiro and his Band.

The Ball was in commemoration of the 129th anniversary of the Battle of Albuhera fought on May 16, 1811.

A committee of nine corporals put their heads together and their hard work bore the fruits of outstanding entertainment and enjoyment for everybody.

All Officers of the Regiment, including Capt. W. P. Chattey, Adjutant, attended.

Raffle prizes were won by Mrs. R. F. Alliver, Sgt.-Maj. H. Ramsay, Mrs. G. W. Flood and L/Cpl. E. Carpenter.

Excellent cabaret items were contributed by Cpl. Thompson, of the Middlesex, Miss Audrey Oakentill, Ronald Alkman (piano), Don Carlos (Rumba exhibition), C. Mattos and Miss Mattos.

The Ball committee comprised: Corporals Matthews (M.C.), Johnson, Ravenscroft, Sevon, Smith, Betts, Dyson and Smith.

The dance programme included Paul Jones, Tango, Valeta, Palais Glide, Boomp-a-Daisy and the Boston Two-step.

TAN KAH-KEE VISITS TOMB OF GENGHIS KHAN

Mr. Tan Kah-kee, well-known industrial magnate in Singapore, who recently came to China with the South Seas Chinese Comfort Mission, visited the tomb of Genghis Khan, the world famous Mongol monarch and conqueror, on Saturday.

It may be recalled that the remains of the Great Khan and his Royal consort which had lain at Etimbor, situated about 100 miles south of the railway head at Pao-tow in Suifu, for 712 years were removed somewhere else in July, 1939, to prevent their seizure by Japanese intriguers.

Besides visiting the tomb, Mr. Tan investigated the rural economic conditions there.

The eminent industrialist will leave today on a tour to Chinghai province, according to Central News.

RUMANIAN MEASURES

BUCHAREST, May 18 (Havas)—The Rumanian Government has taken drastic measures to ensure the security of the State.

All foreigners with temporary visas have been ordered to leave the country by the end of May or they will be interned in concentration camps.

"GRAND OLD MAN" BACK IN FRENCH CABINET

When The Nation Shows What It Is Really Made Of

PARIS, May 19 (Reuter).—The reshuffle of the Cabinet marks a further strengthening of the Government. The most dramatic change is the inclusion of the "Grand Old Man," Marshal Petain, who is remarkably active despite his 84 years.

M. Reynaud at the War Ministry will have the benefit of his help and sage advice on vital matters.

CHANGES ANNOUNCED

PARIS, May 19 (Reuter).—Changes in the French War Cabinet were announced in Paris yesterday afternoon.

Marshal Petain, who was Commander-in-Chief during part of the Great War and until yesterday was Ambassador to Spain, becomes Vice-Premier.

M. Edouard Daladier, at present War Minister, becomes Foreign Minister, a post previously occupied by the Premier, M. Reynaud.

M. Reynaud takes over the War Office concurrently with the post of Premier.

HELD TO PARIS

M. Georges Mandel, Minister of Colonies, is appointed Minister of Interior.

M. Louis Rollin, Minister of Trade and Industry, replaces M. Mandel at the Colonial Ministry.

Marshal Petain, who will be a Minister without Portfolio as Vice-Premier, is 84. He is one of the outstanding figures in French public life.

The Premier, M. Paul Reynaud, yesterday presided over a meeting of the war committee of the Cabinet.

M. Reynaud later received Marshal Petain, French Ambassador to Spain, who flew to Paris from Madrid.

WELCOMED AT KWEILIN

A meeting was held on Saturday in Kweilin by various circles in honour of Mr. George Fitch, China-born American social service leader, who is Secretary of the National Committee of the Chinese Y.M.C.A. in Chungking, says Central News.

Speaking at the meeting, Mr. Fitch praised the Chinese efforts in the development of the Northwest where he had recently visited.

He said that as two democratic countries, China and the United States should seek closer co-operation.

Referring to an American arms embargo against Japan, he said that the cautious attitude of a small section of the Americans is preventing its early imposition but believed that after the Presidential election, a rational step will be taken.

MOST ITALIANS AGAINST WAR

CAIRO, May 19 (Reuter).—"Dastour" points out that the majority of the Italians are against war.

"This opposition," it says "is increasing, as it is felt that the Italians want to use Italy as a cat's paw. Finally, America has begun to feel that the question of joining the war on the side of the Allies may become necessary."

MUST BE WITH BRITAIN Italy's joining the war will drive America in and put an end to dictators' ambitions.

"Al Mokattam" says that the fiercer the war becomes, the more the Egyptians are convinced of the benefits of the Anglo-Egyptian Alliance.

Egypt's geographical position makes it imperative that she should be on the side of Britain. The paper points out the fate of small nations who refused to move after the aggression on Finland.

AMERICAN GLOOM

WASHINGTON, May 19 (Reuter).—A pall of gloom has settled over Washington and the war news from Europe has saddened crowds everywhere.

Radio commentators refer movingly to the situation confronting the Allies.

The man-in-the-street is frequently heard to say "We shall have to go over."

Under the Defence Regulations, 1939, persons holding more than ten tons of coal are required to furnish a weekly return and statement, it is notified in the Government Gazette.

On the whole the new changes foreshadow the implementation of new revolutionary measures forecast by M. Reynaud on Thursday.

The broadcast by M. Reynaud lasted only a few minutes. The Premier said the situation is grave, but not at all hopeless. It is in such circumstances that the French nation shows what it is made of. The greatness of our people is such that at such times it forgets its own sufferings.

What the country awaits from the Government is not words—they had heard too many during the last few years—but action.

Marshal Petain, who won the victory of Verdun, has returned from Madrid and all his wisdom and power will be at the service of the country until victory is won.

SITUATION IS BETTER

LONDON, May 19 (Reuter).—It is learned in well-informed quarters in London that the situation on the western front yesterday was still very serious. It was, however, certainly no worse and, in fact might be described as a little better.

The German advance on the French front has very much slackened, although possibly only temporarily. The exhaustion of the German units is very apparent.

NO FURTHER

Parachute troops are being dropped close behind the lines. While the situation is very serious it in no way represents the catastrophic picture painted by some warmongers.

The Germans are putting every ounce of their energy into the thrust but it is felt the time must come when they can go no further.

Reuter's military correspondent writes: "There is no doubt the German tactics came as a surprise. The technique of the dive-bombing on the defenders, followed by rapid tank rushes, was difficult to counter, while the weight pattern than previously used by the Germans, was also a surprise."

LIEGE AND NAMUR FORTRESSES STILL INTACT

LONDON, May 19 (Reuter).—It is learned in authoritative London quarters this afternoon that the beleaguered fortresses in Liege and Namur are still intact.

A Berlin communique claims that over 2,000 Dutch and French troops have been taken prisoner in the islands of Schoten and South Beveland.

It also states that at two places the Germans penetrated the outside belt of the fortresses at Antwerp. To the south of Maastricht German armoured corps pierced the French frontier fortifications and destroying two enemy divisions. They pursued the retreating enemy, crossing the Sambre further to the south and pushing down to upper Oise.

FIGHTING GOING ON ALL DAY

PARIS, May 19 (Reuter).—A communique states that fighting continued all day with the same violence, chiefly in the region of Quise and Landreville, the enemy, despite considerable losses, is attacking in a westerly direction with powerful resources.

On the remainder of the front there is nothing of importance to report. Our bombers continued to harass the enemy's motorised columns which suffered heavily.

Numerous reconnaissances were carried out, and numerous enemy aeroplanes were brought down by our anti-aircraft fire and fighters.

PARIS, May 19 (Reuter).—It is announced that all factories working for the Air Force will work for 12 hours daily, including Sundays, until further orders.

Firmly seated in the middle of his four "pom poms" this marksman in a French bomber is scanning the space before him in the hope of finding an enemy craft. What seems to be a neck-face he is wearing is in reality several hundreds of machine-gun bullets.

R.A.F. Put Up Grand Fight Against Odds

LONDON, May 19 (Reuter).—The magnificent work of the R.A.F. who generally fight against great odds, continues to be a major feature of the operations on the western front.

The Air Ministry revealed yesterday that 10 Junkers 87 dive-bombers were circling over a wood when the Hurricanes dived to the attack, and the enemy planes frantically tried to avoid the British fighters, swooping to within 30 feet of the ground.

Their efforts were not successful and four Hurricanes each bagged an enemy plane. It was not before the Junkers were thoroughly routed that the Hurricanes withdrew.

R.A.F. HOLD ON TO THEIR BASES LONDON, May 19 (Reuter).—"Reuter's" special correspondent with the R.A.F. telegraphs that the R.A.F. are holding on with determination to their advanced bases in France.

They are holding on despite the severe battering which the advanced striking force operating from these bases received in the first week of the "blitzkrieg" as the result of the enemy's numerical superiority.

The considerable damage which the force has suffered from German dive-bombing attacks—equal in ferocity to that which broke the Polish air forces completely in as many days—has not broken its spirit or means of retaliation.

NAZIS LOSE 50 PLANES While the bombing of enemy troops and other objectives continues, British fighters are stated to be successfully countering, to a large extent, the waves of enemy aircraft at the head of the German tank columns south of the River Sambre.

Details of yesterday's operations are not yet available, but one patrol of six Hurricanes engaged 40 Messerschmitts and shot down six.

Yesterday it was claimed that a handful of British pilots have brought down 50 more enemy aircraft of different types.

VICTIOUS GERMAN CLAIM DENIED LONDON, May 19 (Reuter).—It is officially announced that despite the German air force's wanton repeated attacks on undefended towns in Poland, Norway, France, Holland and Belgium, the British Government steadfastly adheres to the policy of refraining from bombing non-military objectives.

Statements that the R.A.F. have deliberately bombed civilian or non-military objectives are completely untrue and are obviously designed to prepare the way for an extension to Britain of the inhuman methods the Germans used in other countries.

IMMORTAL STORY LONDON, May 19 (Reuter).—His Majesty the King has sent a message to the R.A.F. The message states:

"During my visit to the Headquarters of the Bomber Command today, I was able to hear more of the epic deeds of the bomber force in recent weeks."

"Coupled with the arduous and unceasing duties of the Coastal Command and the heroic exploits of the Fighter Squadrons in our country and in France they make an immortal story—a story which fills the whole Empire, whose sons are now fighting in all three branches, with gratitude and admiration."

"I congratulate the R.A.F. with all my heart and I wish them good luck and continued success."

SALES OF SALVAGED MATERIALS LONDON, May 18 (BWS).—Returns now being completed for the month of April by the Supply Ministry show that sales of salvaged materials have increased in five months since the campaign started from a rate of £236,000 a year to £1,380,000.

The number of local authorities co-operating with the Ministry has increased from 316 to 850 and the population covered by salvage activities has risen, from 23,000,000 to over 37,000,000.

Waste paper collections alone increased from 4,500 tons to 15,000 tons. It is an equivalent amount of the materials salvaged had to be imported its cost might have been ten times as great.

UNJUSTIFIED AND CRUEL PANAMA, May 19 (Reuter).—The protest being made by 21 American nations against Germany's invasion of the Low Countries states that "in accordance to the principles of International Law the American States consider unjustifiable and cruel, the violation by Germany of the neutrality and sovereignty of Belgium, Holland and Luxembourg and appeal for the re-establishment of right and justice among people."

Many German Tanks Lost

FRENCH SCORE SUCCESSES

PARIS, May 19 (Reuter).—The horrible carnage wrought amongst German tank columns by French tanks is described in a thrilling story just received from war correspondents with the French army in Belgium.

The Belgian Army was withdrawing to take up new positions on the west side of a river. It was vital that the bridges be kept open until the Belgian Army had crossed.

Suddenly, an aeroplane reported that German mechanised columns were staging a rapid advance.

French tanks went into action on a big scale. Within a few minutes, the German tank units and motorcyclists were a welter of smashed machinery and blood, and the rest of the Nazi tanks could not advance.

TERRIBLE SIGHT

"It was a terrible sight, inhuman, incredible," said an observer. "I've never imagined there could be such a fiendish noise."

The French tanks came down a hill at full throttle, cutting through the head of the advancing Nazi tanks and continuing on past.

He saw one French tank hit a German tank in the side. The German tank rolled over, wrecked. The French tank went on.

TANK MANOEUVRES

The French tanks carried out the manoeuvre at full speed. After cutting across the head of the column, they turned round, smashed their way through again, turned, and repeated it yet a third time.

German tanks were left spinning around helplessly. Some were upset, some were jammed, others blew up or went up in flames.

The German commander was forced to give the order to retreat, and the French were left masters of the field and ready for more.

SEA POWER STILL GREATEST

NEWPORT, R.I., May 19 (Reuter).—"Bear firmly in mind that sea power defeated Napoleon and it will be sea power today and tomorrow that will prevent another Dictator who lacks it from acquiring domination," said Admiral Yarnell, formerly commander-in-chief of the United States Asiatic Fleet, addressing the graduate class of the Naval War College yesterday.

Admiral Yarnell urged that the United States keep out of the war until she was assured that the men and the money would be spent to far better ends than in 1918.

Should the United States reach the end of her endurance, the war should be made a purely naval one and no troops should be sent abroad.

BUSINESS AS USUAL

LONDON, May 19 (Reuter).—While Londoners and the British people generally are following the war news with stern determination, their daily life continues undisturbed.

Theatres and cinemas are crowded and road and rail traffic are normal. But for newspapers' posters and the balloon barrages overhead, the city maintains an unruffled appearance.

On Saturday evening the newspapers gave the usual prominence to sports items interspersed with news from France and Belgium.

While expressing concern over the German "blitz" into the Allied lines, Britons are sustained by the conviction that the present setback is only temporary and, moreover, are heartened by the splendid performances of the Royal Air Force.

SOUTH AFRICA WILL DO DUTY, WIN THROUGH

Neutrality Is Dead, Says Gen. Smuts In Speech

PRETORIA, May 19 (Reuter).—A reception, which Gen. J. C. Smuts himself described as being an "experience I have never had before," was accorded to the Prime Minister at the United Party rally here. A crowd consisting of thousands of people from all parts of the Transvaal cheered Gen. Smuts to the echo.

Gen. Smuts said the logical progression of events have proved that South Africa's decision to participate in the war was right. "Who dares to say today that Hitler and his Germany is not trying to dominate the world?" he asked.

Gen. Smuts added: "Neutrality is dead in the world. In half-a-dozen countries it has proved a snare to delusion. I do not care where I fight so long as I fight against Germany."

Referring to the present military situation in Europe, Gen. Smuts said, "Knowing what had happened in 1914, I expected the severest setbacks at the beginning of the war. The aggressor always has a great advantage at the beginning."

But, he said, the initial advantage did not last, "so do not be unduly depressed."

Gen. Smuts, concluding stated, "We are preparing now to take our part in the fight. I had a pretty tough job in organising our defences, but we are now making progress and I do not doubt that in this struggle South Africa will once more do her duty, win through and maintain her honour untarnished."

NORWAY WILL CONTINUE RESISTANCE

LONDON, May 19 (Reuter).—Norway will continue to resist the German invasion to the full extent of her power.

This is the gist of messages by King Haakon and the Norwegian Prime Minister on the occasion of Norwegian Independence Day.

FREEDOM WILL BE STORED King Haakon's message said: "Norway has been assailed by a nation which is ignorant of freedom and cannot understand the revolting injustice of her action."

"The south of Norway has been temporarily given up but with the help of our Allies its freedom will be fully restored."

King Haakon exhorted Norwegians in the German occupied areas to have confidence and hope.

In a Scottish town, Norwegian exiles marched through the streets, wearing the Norwegian colours on their left breast.

In the evening a dinner was held at which a moving speech was made by a Norwegian sailor, who said: "We are confident that we will yet clear the Fatherland of these invaders."

S.M.C. WORKMEN ON STRIKE

Road-building workmen and scavengers in the International Settlement in Shanghai have been on strike for five days after they had failed to get a satisfactory reply from the Shanghai Municipal Council to their demand for improved treatment.

They were joined in the strike yesterday by workers of the Repairs Department.

Early on Saturday morning some of the disgruntled elements smashed public buses in Sincin Road. In view of the disturbance all shops in the vicinity boarded up, says Central News.

In the afternoon the S.M.C. summoned representatives of the workmen in an attempt to work out a solution.

As a result of the strike, refuse is piling high in many of the lanes.

ESPIONAGE CHARGE BERNE, May 19 (Reuter).—Dr. Trueb, secretary of the legal department of the Swiss Army, was yesterday sentenced to eight years imprisonment for espionage. His wife to four years and an army accomplice to six years.

Trueb, who was described as a lieutenant-colonel on the Swiss Army Reserve, has been cashiered and his accomplice relegated to the ranks.

Reported missing last Thursday, a British youth, Ronald Fullerton, 15, who is working on a British steamer lying at Takoo Dock, has reported back to his ship.

JAPANESE RUMOURS ONLY

PARIS, May 19 (Reuter).—With reference to the report issued by the Japanese news agency on May 15, alleging that transit of arms to China from French territory has been resumed in increasing volume, it is authoritatively stated in Paris that "in November 1937 the French Government decided to ban all transit of arms by the Yunnan railway. Since then there has been none."

PREMIER AT JAPANESE EMBASSY

LONDON, May 19 (Reuter).—Mr. Churchill lunched with the Japanese Ambassador at the Japanese Embassy on Friday.

The French Ambassador to London, the Arabian Minister and the Japanese Minister At Large were also present.

ART EXHIBITION AT CATHEDRAL HALL

Many Fine Paintings By Erne Freedlander

ERNE FREEDLANDER, the European artist whose exhibition of monotypes last December evoked so much comment, has been busy since then—very busy indeed—and the result of all her work, some 40 paintings, mostly of Hongkong landscapes and faces, will be exhibited from today until Wednesday at St. John's Cathedral Hall. The paintings may be viewed from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. daily.

There are 50 paintings in all being exhibited, the work of the last few months supplemented by some of her earlier paintings which she considers to be among her best.

The exhibition is roughly divided into some 21 landscapes, 14 still life studies and 15 portraits. The landscapes are the artist's pride. She has tramped the paths about Ventris Road, Tin Hau Temple Road, Happy Valley and Causeway Bay for her sketches, and has sought to capture that blending of light which she believes is so peculiar to Hongkong.

The colours are deep and sombre, and provoking of drowsiness. They should be recognised as of Hongkong on a warm summer afternoon. The buildings are quaint, but that is the influence of the impressionists.

CHINESE STUDIES

The portraits are devoted mostly to Chinese studies, and the artist has managed to capture an impression of true China in very nearly every face. The best of these studies is one entitled "The Mirror" (No. 37) which portrays a woman looking into mirror and her face reflected in it. Another excellent portrait study is "Vision" (No. 45).

"Chinese Girl" (No. 40) leaves one wondering where the artist found a girl who could have retained long enough the mischievously calculating look that was recapture on the canvas. A study (No. 39) of an old-fashioned Chinese matron in black velvet headgear leaves also a sinister look in a rather pale face.

Some of the Nordic studies are good. "Harlekin" (No. 3), an impression of Picasso, "Masks" (No.

2) and "Mystery" (No. 34) being among the more interesting.

The still life studies are numerous and appear to have demanded more detail from the artist than her other work.

REGISTRY WEDDINGS

The following marriages took place on Saturday morning at the Registry:—

Mr. Lam Sheung-chung, aviation ground engineer, of No. 521 Nathan Road, and Miss Yan Chui-king, of No. 122 Kennedy Road;

Mr. Paul Pong Zung-chang, of No. 20 Morrison Hill Road, and Miss Lucy Chen, of No. 61 Wong-nelchong Road;

Mr. Kwan You-shing, merchant, of No. 22 Ring Hon Road, and Miss Chu Yin-tai, of No. 4 Lung Kong Road.

Badly damaging the front of his own machine, Mr. Poon Tso-ting of Broadwood Road, collided with a stationary car in Essex Crescent, Kowloon Tong, at 8 p.m. on Saturday. The mishap took place as Mr. Poon was on the point of turning into Stafford Road.

On Saturday morning at the Marine Court two Chinese were fined $5 and $1, respectively or an alternate of five and one days in goal, after having been found guilty of throwing rubbish into the harbour waters. The two men preferred imprisonment to the payment of fines.

Model Plane Contest

BIGGEST HELD IN FAR EAST

Many local model-aeroplane enthusiasts and spectators attended the fourth semi-annual model-aeroplane contest, held yesterday morning in the spacious fields at the end of Waterloo Road, Kowloon.

More than a hundred planes took part in what is considered to be the biggest model aeroplane contest held in the Far East so far.

Spectators thrilled to the sight of stream-lined models, built to scale and powered by real gasoline motors, which took off under their own power to circle as long as the fuel lasted.

However, there were only six gasoline-powered model planes compared to about 90 rubber-band motivated models. Gliders were catapulted into the air by their owners to soar lightly in the breeze.

There were some unavoidable crashes and "crack-ups" in the model aeroplane fleet. Other models attained altitudes of over a 100 feet. Some beautiful flying and neat landings were seen, reminiscent of the performance of real air-liners.

MORE JAPANESE SAVAGERY

Another attack by Japanese aircraft on Chinese fishing junks was reported to the Police on Saturday by Kong Yuk-ting, a junk master, who was admitted later to the Queen Mary Hospital suffering from bullet wounds in the left leg.

According to Kong, his junk was bombed and machine-gunned by a Japanese plane on May 9 near Ma Tin Village off the coast of Ho Fung. The boat was destroyed.

He was picked up by a passing junk and brought to the Colony, arriving in Hongkong on Saturday.

OATHS OF OFFICE

HON. MR. N. L. SMITH TO ADMINISTER GOVERNMENT

The ceremony of swearing-in the Officer Administering the Government, the Hon. Mr. N. L. Smith, C.M.G., took place at 12.30 p.m. yesterday in the Council Chamber in the presence of members of the Executive and Legislative Councils and other high officials.

The oaths of office were administered by the Chief Justice, His Honour Sir Atholl MacGregor.

Speaking to the distinguished assembly, His Excellency the Officer Administering the Government said:—

This is not the time for elaborate ceremonial or for long speeches but I should like to thank you all for coming today at what must be a somewhat inconvenient hour to launch me on my administration.

It is however to our departing Governor that our thoughts must chiefly turn. In the short space of two and a half years Sir Geoffrey Northcote has endeared himself in a remarkable manner with all sections of the community and I think it will be the wish of those present here today that the Colony's good wishes and prayers should be conveyed to him at this time.

I propose therefore, with your concurrence, to send him the following message:—

"Executive and Legislative Councils assembled with Naval Commander-in-Chief, Chief Justice and Police Judge for swearing in ceremony desire in the name of the whole Colony to express their deep concern in the medical reports which have compelled you against your own wish to proceed on leave. They wish you and Lady Northcote a safe journey and a happy return with your health completely restored."

THOSE PRESENT

The proposal was greeted with acclamation.

Besides His Excellency the Officer Administering the Government, the following were present: His Excellency Sir Percy Noble (Commander-in-Chief of the

JAPANESE ON MURDER CHARGE

Ohto Tainosuke, Japanese proprietor of the Nagasaki Joe beer hall in Wanchai, was arraigned before the Chief Justice, Sir Atholl MacGregor, at the Criminal Sessions on Saturday on a charge of attempted murder of his wife, Mitsuko Ohto.

Mr. D. J. N. Anderson, instructed by Mr. W. A. Mackinlay, appeared for accused and entered a plea of not guilty. Accused was remanded on bail, to appear for trial on Wednesday.

the Officer Administering the Government;

Mr. Brian Cecil Fay, Police Cadet, to be Aide-de-Camp to His Excellency the Officer Administering the Government.

SNATCHERS IN COURT

Two European ladies were the victims of handbag snatchers in Tsimshatsui district on Friday. They were Mrs. A.E. Perry, of Railway Terrace, and Miss Prata, of Hankow Road.

The snatchers were sentenced each to six months' hard labour and 10 strokes of the cane by Mr. E. Himsforth at Kowloon Court on Saturday.

The first case, in which Mrs. Perry was the victim, occurred outside the Children's Playground in Chatham Road. Mrs. Perry chased the snatcher a distance of some 50 yards and caught him herself.

Miss Prata was victimised in Cameron Road. She raised an alarm and an Indian officer of the H.K.S.R. chased and arrested the thief.

Germans Attempt To Send Reliefs To Narvik By Sea

PARIS, May 19 (Reuter).—An attempt by the Germans to re-leave Narvik by sea from Trondheim has been repulsed. German transports have been sunk or captured by Allied warships, stated a dispatch from the Narvik front.

Refugees arriving at the Swedish frontier says the superiority of the Allied air forces in the Narvik area over the Germans is very marked. In the course of an air battle several German machines were brought down.

There is now only one way by which the Germans might escape from Narvik towards the Swedish frontier and this hole is likely to be blocked by the Allies at any moment. The town itself is virtually in the hands of the Allies.

North of the town the Allies are pursuing the German in the direction of the frontier.

Allied pressure on the town grows stronger daily. Naval units maintain a steady bombardment and aeroplanes fly over the town continuously.

HEALTH RETURNS

Thirty-two cases of tuberculosis, one of small-pox (imported), one of diphtheria, three of enteric fever, three of measles, two of cerebro-spinal fever, ten of dysentery and one of puerperal fever were notified to the Health authorities on Friday.

EASTERN PORTS

The Health bulletin of Eastern ports of the week ending May 11 is as follows:

Cholera: Bassein 30 cases, Calcutta 87, Rangoon 2. Small-pox: Jodhpur 1 death, Allahabad 5 cases, Badagara 2, Delhi 10, Bombay 61, Calcutta 41, Karachi 2, Madras 3, Rangoon 6, Okha 1, Forbandar 4 deaths, Veraval 6 cases, Macao 37, Hongkong 5, Shanghai 2.

SNATCHER CAUGHT

Sentences totalling 12 months' hard labour were imposed on Tsang Kuen, 39, unemployed, when he appeared before Mr. R. Edwards at the Central Court yesterday and pleaded guilty to the charge of aiding and abetting the offence of snatching a handbag from Mrs. Beeken on May 17, and a breach of the Deportation Ordinance.

Mrs. Beeken, of No. 11, Stanley Terrace, was standing by her car locking up the door while the defendant and another person snatched her handbag away and ran. He was chased and arrested by a private watchman.

BITTEN BY DOG

Whilst walking near Humphreys' Building yesterday afternoon, a 16-year-old youth, Sung Ping-fong, was attacked and bitten by a dog. The lad, who lived at No. 120, Shanghai Street, was given medical treatment, while the dog was sent to Mataukok for observation.

Taipeingchen on the border where the Japanese field headquarters was situated has been recaptured by the Chinese. Several high Japanese army officers are reported to have been killed when the Chinese broke into the town.

With its retreat on the Sianyang-Huayuan highway cut off a Japanese unit with about 400 Japanese army lorries and 200 tanks and armoured cars has retired to the Tahung mountain range south of Sianyang. It has been intercepted and attacked by the Chinese, sustaining considerable losses.

Another Japanese unit which fled to Changchiatzi also in the Tahung mountain range was routed by the Chinese in a fierce attack during a rainstorm on Thursday night. Sixteen Japanese soldiers were taken prisoner and hundreds of Japanese horses and mules were captured.

TRAINLOADS OF DEAD
Reports from north Hunan indicate that the Japanese have suffered heavily in Chinese attacks at the Japanese outer defence points of Yoyang in the past days. Trainloads of Japanese dead and wounded are said to have been sent back to Wuchang.

On Thursday night, Chinese troops made another successful attack at Yangtzu on the Canton-Hankow Railway, 38 miles northeast of Yoyang. They broke through the Japanese defence lines, set fire to two Japanese supply depots, and captured a Japanese soldier. Over 100 casualties were inflicted upon the Japanese.

Last night the Chinese also broke through the Japanese lines at Tachin, a small town 18 miles to the southeast of Yoyang.
